TWELFTH YEAR.

EARLINGTON, HOPKINS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1901.

NO. 8

DYNAMITE USED.

Non-union Miner's Home Attacked at Midnight and Fired Into.

AT THE PROVIDENCE MINES.

Officers Working on Cleft That Promise Well.

Providence, Ky., Feb. 19.—More violence has been attempted on non-union miners at the mines of the Providence Coal Company.

About midnight last night a party of men visited a large boarding-house near the mine of that company, placed dynamite on the porch and fired it. The explosion partially demolished the building and terrified the occupants. After shooting the dynamite the party fired several shots from revolvers into the house and ran away.

The house is occupied by two colored families, who both have a number of non-union miners as boarders. This is the same mine where a man, a member of the United Mine Workers, recently attempted to assassinate Guard Holloman at night.

The authorities and operators are working on clefts that promise to put the dynamite in the clutches of the law.

The Railroad and the Laboring Man.

It is announced in a most sensational way that the recent railroad consolidations will be followed by a wholesale discharge of laboring men, in an effort to reduce expenses one hundred millions.

Such statements need not excite alarm in any quarter. Thirty years ago, when the movement for the consolidation of shortlines into long and continuous lines began, the opponents of that most beneficent tendency declared that it meant hardship to the workmen and poorer facilities for the public.

The effect was contrary to that predicted. These new lines, having more at stake, had to meet public demands, and had, when possible, to avoid dissatisfaction among the men. The public has been better served, the workingmen have had better wages and more certain employment, and the capital invested has found its reward in the increase of traffic.

So will it be in the future. Economy is possible, doubtless, in certain directions, by the consolidation of local offices and certain terminal changes. But there must be expansion in other directions. The roads must develop traffic; they must encourage travel; they must therefore employ more men if they are to earn a fair return on the billions of capital invested.

The danger of loss of employment does not lie in the direction indicated, but in another altogether.

For ten years railroad building in Kentucky has been at a standstill. Adverse legislation and organized political raids and the cry of the demagogues—these have practically put a stop to railroad building in Kentucky. The roads already here have been improved, and they are falling into their natural relations with the great systems, but instead of 5,000 miles of railroads, all developing new mines and encouraging new facilities, we have just the mileage we had ten years ago.—Louisville Evening Post.

Charles Caldwell, of Temperance, has a mule seventeen hands high, which he can't sell, because it is too big for practical purposes.

The chronic borrower is certainly a promising individual.

MRS. ROBERT NOAKES

Sues For a Divorce From Col. Campbell's Star Witness.

Barbourville, Ky., Feb. 19.—Mrs. Robert Noakes (nee Rice), formerly of Artemus, Ky., today filed suit against Robert Noakes, asking for a divorce, and that she be restored to her maiden name.

Her husband was one of the star witnesses in the Goebel conspiracy trials at Georgetown. He is said to be out of the State now and his whereabouts unknown.

Mrs. Nation and the Press.

It seems to be Mrs. Nation's ambition to make a national wrecked.—Chicago Tribune.

Kansas should either license saloons or license some one to demolish them.—The Houston Post.

The rumor that Mrs. Nation is on the pay-roll of the glass trust is denied.—Minneapolis Times.

It is now up to Mr. Markham to write a poem about "The Woman with the Ax."—Buffalo Express.

Her platform is free and unlimited carriage without the aid or consent of an other Nation.—Chicago Tribune.

The herculean task of smashing the trusts night with great propriety be referred to Mrs. Nation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

If Hoyt were writing a Kansas play one of the characters would certainly be Carrie Consternation.—Philadelphia Ledger.

It is presumed that some poor man in Kansas will be known to fame hereafter as "Mrs. Nation's husband."—Baltimore American.

Mrs. Nation evidently does not share the popular superstition regarding the ill luck that follows the breaking of a mirror.—Florida Herald-Transcript.

Mrs. Nation has declined to act in "Ten Nights in a Barroom," but she might possibly consent to be the star for one night in ten barrooms.—Chicago Record.

The Kansas saloon-keeper who has his fortune told in these troublous times will doubtless be informed that he must beware of a tall, dark woman with a brick in one hand.—Denver Republican.

CRAP GAME KEEPER GETS TWO YEARS.

Louisville Gamblers Terror Stricken in Consequence.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 16.—Frank Paul was convicted this afternoon in the Criminal Court for setting up and running a crap game. The jury fixed the fine at $200 and gave him a penitentiary sentence of two years. This is the first time such a conviction has been recorded in this county for twenty years, and is the result of the vigorous war that has been waged against the gamblers in this city for the past four months. Paul was indicted by the December grand jury. His attorneys have tried every way to stay the trial, even trying to swear Judge Barker off the bench, but he refused to step down, and forced a trial this morning.

There are about thirty more similar indictments against gamblers to be tried next week. The conviction of Paul has almost caused a panic among the gaming fraternity.

The Queen Dowager of Italy intends to publish a biography of the late King Humbert, which will reveal the personal side of his history.

ROOSEVELT, TALKS.

About the Colorado Hunt and Says Those Were Awful Newspaper Yarns.

Gov. Roosevelt is out of the wilds of Colorado again and tells the truth of his hunt for big game in the Rockies. He was disgusted with the fairy stories sent out by long distance newspaper correspondents. He says: "No correspondent of any newspaper, no man who wrote or gave any information to any newspaper was within forty miles of where I was hunting at any time during the five weeks I was out. The sensational stories, such as those describing adventures with bears and wolves were deliberate and willful fabrications and, I understand, were written by men who were not within hundreds of miles of where I was. We did not see a bear or wolf on the entire trip. Aside from lynx and smaller game our hunting was confined to hunting the so-called mountain lions or panthers. I got two of them. I never enjoyed a holiday more. I have never been out with a better hunter than John Goff. His hounds are without exception the best I have ever seen for the work."

Bill to Legalize Joint-Smashing in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Feb. 16.—A bill legalizing "joint-smashing" in Indiana made its appearance today in the Senate. The measure permits any crowd of people, not exceeding twelve, to "smash" any booth, boat or other place where liquor is illegally sold in Indiana, declaring such places to be public nuisances. It also provides that any one interfering with the "smashers" shall be punished for assault and battery, or assault with intent to kill. The bill was referred to the Temperance Committee. The measure makes it the duty of peace officers to attempt to abate such nuisances, but their failure is to be followed by the action of the "smashers," who are declared exempt from damages.

Substitute for Coal.

It is reported that a workman named Monteg, in the Henshof dye and soda factory, near Mannheim, Germany, has invented a substitute for coal which costs about 25 cents per 200 pounds to manufacture. The process is described by A. L. Frankenthal, United States Consul at Berne, in the Advance Sheets of Consular Reports, issued by the Government (January 29) as follows: "Peat is the basis, with the addition of certain chemicals which, up to the present, are the secret of the inventor. Parties who have seen the product but say that it gives a great heat, burns with a bright flame, and leaves no slag and only a small quantity of white ash. Certain Mannheim capitalists have tried to obtain the secret from the inventor by offering him a position as director in a company to be established, giving him a salary of $4,000 and two percent. of the net profits; but he has refused this offer, because he wants to control the sale of the invention himself. Capitalists on the claim that Monteg asks too high a price. Mr. Gehrig, the secretary of the Mannheim Chamber of Commerce, has, it is said, undertaken to procure the necessary material for the manufacture of the article in partnership with the inventor. They have bought 25 acres of peat land and have bonded 125 more in the vicinity of Hockenheim, where they will erect the necessary buildings, large enough to keep several hundred men at work. It is figured that the daily output will be sixty tons. It is said that the peat is thoroughly dried, ground by a machine, mixed with the chemicals, and pressed into brick shape."

Lafayette who took the last photograph of Queen Victoria, in Dublin, with a sprig of shamrock in her bonnet has sold over 100,000 copies, and the demand is increasing.

Vermont has twelve living ex-Governors, while Indiana has none.

He Chose the Philippines.

The ignorance that exists among some classes about matters that every one with a vestige of intelligence should know is astonishing.

The other day a youth from the country called at the local recruiting station to enlist for the army.

"Now you can sign for service in either the Philippines or United States," said the officer.

"Which do you prefer?" "Whur is the United States?" asked the unsophisticated youth who seemed to have heard of the Philippines, but never of his own country.

The yokel was informed that he was now a citizen of the United States and lived there, and after recovering from the surprise brought about by this startling information he said he guessed he'd go to the Philippines. And there he probably is now.—Paducah Sun.

Local Option Election.

Morehead, Ky., Feb. 16.—The people of this community are greatly stirred up over the whisky problem, and steps are being taken to order an election for the entire county within sixty days.

The immediate cause of the crusade is the Morehead Normal College. The Woman's Christian Board of Missions has donated the college the sum of $65,000 on the condition that no saloons are allowed in the town, and so the temperance people are making a vigorous fight to drive out the saloons.

A Card.

I desire to extend to my many customers my highest appreciation for their very liberal patronage during last year and wish to announce that I am better prepared this season to execute a larger amount of building with more promptness than ever before. Before letting your contracts this year give me a chance to make you an estimate on your work, as I will give you full value received and treat you right in every way. I don't ask for all the work that will be done here this season, but you will please remember that at all times I will be prepared to take "one more" contract. Wishing all a happy and prosperous year, I am,

Yours very sincerely,
M. McComb,
Contractor and Builder.

Mrs. Chesley Williams Dead.

Mrs. Chesley Williams of Madisonville died early Monday morning, after much suffering. Some time ago she had a severe spell of fever which was supposed to have settled in her foot, where gangrene set in. The foot was amputated a little more than a week ago. The operation was very successful, and she was thought to be doing well until a few days ago, when the right foot became similarly affected and she grew rapidly worse until death relieved her sufferings. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn the loss of a true wife and a devoted mother.

Powder Ordinance.

The City Council of the City of Earlinton do ordain as follows: Section 1.—That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be and the same is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to store or keep any dynamite, or more than two kegs of gunpowder, or blasting powder, or like explosive, at any one time within any building, or in any annex to any building, or any lot within the fire limits, as established and now existing in the said city.

Sec. 2.—Such use of said building or lot is hereby declared to be a nuisance, as being dangerous and perilous to the public safety.

Sec. 3.—Any person found guilty of a violation of the terms or spirit of this ordinance shall be fined $10 for each day or for it so keeps said explosive contrary to the terms hereof, or no trunks or evasion shall be allowed to impede the enforcement of this ordinance.

NBFO NOTES.

Local and Personal Items Gathered by our Nebo Correspondent.

Nemo, Ky., Feb. 19.—Nothing of a startling nature has occurred since our last letter.

There are several cases of grip in this vicinity.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Uncle Billy Gill, who died last Saturday night and was buried Sunday with Masonic honors. Uncle Billy was one of our oldest citizens, and no better man, or one more generally beloved ever lived in Rose Creek neighborhood. He came to the neighborhood about forty-three years ago, and we feel safe in saying that during that time he never made an enemy. He was about eighty-one years of age, and leaves three children but no wife.

We regret to note the death of Mark Corbin, who died last week. He was about fifty-five years of age and leaves a wife and several children.

Doctor Kennedy spent several days in Nebo last week.

Mr. Alfred Roberts, of Madisonville, is visiting his brother, who is engaged in the tobacco business at this place.

Charley Birk and brother returned Monday from Owensboro, where they had gone to visit their father.

Brother Curry attended Mr. Corbin's funeral and remained over and attended prayer meeting.

Mr. Fisher, of Arkansas, spent several days in Nebo and vicinity last week. There seems to be some peculiar attraction in this part of the world for him.

Miss Goldie Chandler, who has been clerking for Eudaley and Morrow met with quite a painful accident Tuesday night. She overturned a kettle of boiling water, scalding her feet badly.

T. W. Chandler is at home with rheumatism.

Miss Belle Story will teach the spring school in Nebo, beginning March 4th. Miss Belle is an experienced teacher, and will doubtless have a large school.

A. E. Hill, of Manito, attended services here Sunday.

Reld Tapp, of Manito, worshipped in Nebo Sunday.

The Rutherford House gave a masquerade party Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lan Lutz, of Stanhope, visited in Nebo, Sunday.

Miss Jennie Pike is visiting at Stanhope.

Mr. Burton, of the Cornish neighborhood, was in Nebo this week and reported his son, who has been sick so long with typhoid fever, as much better.

Bro. B. F. McMeen filled his appointments at the C. P. church Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning and evening.

Cris Hoffman undertook to put a stack of fodder in his eye. The result was hard on the eye and he is suffering intensely.

Up to this time very little interest is manifested in the Democratic primary among the candidates. In fact, they seem to be more interested in what the Republicans are going to do than anything else. For the information of all concerned we say, bring out your men, and in November we will show what we will do by electing the full county ticket. The Democrats give some good advice in regard to who will be our strongest men for candidate, but we doubt their sincerity.

RUSTICS.

Special Railroad Rates to Louisville.

The various railroads in the State have granted a rate of one and one-third fare, on the certificate plan, to delegates attending the Twentieth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky. Delegates must pay full fare going, and must secure Convention Certificate from the ticket agent when they purchase their tickets at starting point. These will be counter-signed by the Secretary of the Convention, and entitle the holders to secure a return ticket at one-third. Delegates unable to purchase through tickets to Louisville must secure certificates at each purchasing point.

COMPARED WITH EARLINGTON.

Sturgis Getting Warm Up Over the Liquor Traffic.

Burdley, Ky., Feb'y. 18.—Henry Hawes, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned to Madisonville Monday.

The O. V. College at Sturgis is said to be in a bad condition financially, but the attendance is good.

The Democratic candidates for county officer spoke here Friday. Some of the candidates completely beshamed the characters of others (in their own estimation).

Wm. Brady, a miner living near Sturgis, died Monday, after a two week's illness.

Chas. Schutter, of Davenport, Ia., one of the owners of the large state mill at Sturgis, has been bustling around this week making arrangements for an extra large run this spring.

T. H. Stone, of the Herald, is making it hot for the whiskey interests of Sturgis. THE BEE correspondent told the misfortune to see some of the evils of the liquor traffic on a recent visit there. What a difference between that place and Earlington!

The people of Sturgis are going to have a chance to knock out the murderous liquor fire in the near future.

We will soon give the readers of THE BEE a short history of Burdley.

FATAL FIGHT OF COLORED MEN.

Marshall Johnson Shoots Will Williams. Who Dies in a Few Hours.

Late last Thursday evening a shooting affray between Marshall Johnson and Will Williams resulted in the death of the latter a few hours later. Both were young colored men. After the shooting Johnson went home and disappeared and has not been heard of since.

The shooting occurred about five o'clock near the lake, on Clark street. It was thought Johnson was wounded and a wild story was afloat that his body had been found in the woods, where he had died. This was proven groundless.

All the witnesses to the affair seem to agree that Williams invited the trouble, drew his revolver first and fired first. Only two shots were fired. Johnson's pistol is said to have hung in his pocket, delaying his shooting.

The bullet entered Williams' face and passed upward behind the nose. The surgeons operated that night and took the ball out but could not save the wounded man.

The Freight Depot.

At a called meeting of the Earlington City Council Tuesday night the petition of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co. was granted giving formal permission for the removal of the old depot to the north end of the square near the intersection of Railroad and Clark streets. Some time ago the owners of the building property signed a paper granting the railroad company the privilege of moving the old depot building to the point indicated and authorizing the city to deed a strip of ground to the railroad to be used for that purpose.

The deed of conveyance was made to the railroad company in accordance with the agreement signed between the railroad company and the abutting property owners. The petition above referred to was a matter of form to satisfy a point in the law and to perfect the former agreement and transfer.

The old depot is now being moved and will be in position in a few days. The teaming will be done from the north end of the freight depot, all unloading from cars on track into wagons will be done north of the depot. The elevated platform at the rear of the old depot is being taken away and the extension roof on the street side of the building is to be cut away so that the building will not intrude on the street, or be any nearer than possible to the abutting property owners.

The available military strength of Kansas, according to Secretary Root's report, is 100,000 men and the W. C. T. U.—Chicago Tribune.

Mrs. Nation's mode of burying the hatchet is more impressive than planned to those in whose property it is buried.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The number of cases of smallpox at Pikeville is said to be increasing.

THE INEVITABLE RESULT.

The Joint-Smashing Business in Kansas Has Finally Resulted in Murder.

THE VICTIM A SALOONKEEPER'S WIFE.

The Murderer One of a Gang of Forty Wrecked Men Who Started to Wreck a Joint at Milwood—Four Arrests Made and Others Will be Taken In.

Leavenworth, Kan., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Rose Hudson, wife of John Hudson a bartender at Milwood, 14 miles north of here, was shot and instantly killed, Monday night, during a raid upon Mrs. Luchner's saloon.

Hudson Had Been Warned.

Hudson had been warned to close his saloon, but refused. About ten o'clock three men entered the place and called for drinks. When served they rapped on the counter and uttered a signal. Hudson jumped from behind the bar and grabbed one of the men. In the scuffle a shot gun was fired and the man carried was discharged, the contents entering the wall. Mrs. Hudson, attracted by the noise, ran screaming into the room, while a mob of 40 men, most of whom were masks entered in answer to the signal.

The Fatal Shot Fired.

In the melee that followed, Mrs. Hudson was shot in the head by a shotgun, the top of her head being blown off. William Webb, one of the raiders, was shot in the shoulder by a revolver. Nearly a hundred shots were fired. Hudson carried his dying wife into an adjoining room, and the mob retired without wrecking the joint.

Sherriff Dwyer, who went to Milwood, has secured four prisoners two of whom are John and Henry Wilson, young farmers, others implicated will be arrested. There were 40 women in the mob, it being composed of farmers, all in disguise.

TO CALL A MASS MEETING.

Wichita (Kans.) Ministerial Association Take Action.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 20.—At a meeting of the Ministerial association held in Wichita, Monday evening, it was resolved to call a mass meeting at the Auditorium, next Sunday afternoon. The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Ministerial association of Wichita issue a call for a mass meeting of the temperance-loving people of the city, to be held Sunday afternoon, February 24, at 3:30 o'clock, to determine what action should be taken for the immediate withdrawal of the saloons from our midst."

OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION.

A Wichita Minister Who Declines to Endorse Prohibition.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 20.—Rev. J. D. Witsiey, of the Episcopal church, president of the Ministerial association, did not attend the meeting, but has come out in an interview at opposition to prohibition. He says the saloon is so deeply rooted in American life that it is in part a social system. A large number of the people make it their club. Regulation is the best that can be done with the saloon problem.

WICHITA BUSINESS MEN.

They Will Meet and Take Steps to Prevent Lawlessness.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 20.—A mass meeting of business men was called for next Friday, Feb. 23, at 10 o'clock. The citizens and taxpayers of the city of Wichita hereby call a mass meeting at eight o'clock p. m. on Friday, Feb. 23, for the purpose of taking such steps as may prevent any lawlessness or mob violence in our city. Every business man who is interested in the welfare of Wichita is earnestly requested to be present.

THE HATCHETT BRIGADE.

The Joint-Smashing War Breaks Out in a New Place.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 20.—A special to the Times from Newburg, Kan. says:

A band of 50 men and women, armed with hatchets and axes, made an effective raid on a joint here yesterday. Some of the crusaders came from Perry and Thompsonville. The building in which the "joint" was kept was locked, and the point of forced entrance of the reformers, who were upon broke in the door. They completely demolished a costly cherry bar, a plate glass mirror and other fixtures. There was not much liquor in the place, but it was destroyed. A friend of the pointist tried to protect the property with a shotgun. One of the crusaders named Garrell, is trying to get possession of the gun was struck on the head with it and seriously injured.

To Fight the San Jose Scale.

Port Clinton, O., Feb. 20.—Fifty peach growers of Catawba Island have formed a combination to fight the San Jose scale, which has been doing serious damage in this country. The association will spray the trees with crude oil exclusively.

Committed for Extradition.

London, Feb. 20.—Sigmund Hertz, of New York, who has been under arrest here for some time past charged with forgery, was yesterday committed for extradition to the United States.

OTHERWISE UNNOTICED.

The house passed the bill granting franchises for a third bridge at St. Louis.

Secretary Hay is rapidly improving and will be able to leave his home in a few days.

The Illinois State Farmers' institute is holding a four days' session at Jacksonville.

The Illinois Knights of Pythias school of instructors will be held at Mount Vernon instead of at Duquoin, March 13.

There is still some uncertainty about the calling of an extra session soon after the close of the present congress.

ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.

The Bill Appropriating Five Millions Passed by the House of Representatives.

THE VOTE RECEIVED WITH APPLAUSE.

The Bill Was Passed, Under Suspension of the Rules, by a Vote of 101 to 41. Some of the Opposition Coming From the Older States of the South.

Washington, Feb. 19.—This was suspension day in the house. The local committee from St. Louis who are here publishing the St. Louis exposition bill were in the gallery in anticipation of action upon the bill in the course of the day. A delegation from the W. C. T. U., who are interested in having the bill amended so as to provide for the closing of the exposition on Sunday and to prohibit the sale of liquor on the grounds, also were in the gallery to watch the fight.

Immediately after the reading of the journal Mr. Tawney (Maine) chairman of the special committee on the Louisiana Purchase exposition, moved the passage under suspension of the rules of the bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the exposition.

A second vote was demanded and ordered. This action allowed 20 minutes debate upon a side. Before the debate began, Mr. Lattin (S. C.) asked unanimous consent to offer the Charleston, S. C., exposition bill as an amendment, but Mr. Higgins (Ill.) objected.

Mr. Tawney dilated upon the great and overwhelming importance of the event which this proposed exposition was to celebrate, calling attention to the fact that of all expositions held in this country congress had authorized it but twice—the Centennial celebration at Philadelphia and the exposition at Chicago to commemorate the discovery of America. Congress, he said, had only provided for its own exhibit at other expositions. The magnitude of the event to be celebrated at St. Louis made it proper that congress should authorize it.

Mr. Mahon, (I.) opposed the bill. He said he did not imagine his opposition would avail.

"I might not be" cried Mr. Tawney "in view of the interest we made at the last session."

"I want to talk about other contracts just as binding," replied Mr. Mahon, who proceeded to recall "that manner in which Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, was fighting honest claims."

Moreover, he said, there were to be no public buildings authorized by this congress on account of the great expenditure. The congress would give to a private enterprise by this bill, he said, would build fifty, necessary public buildings.

He was anxious, he said, to see when the "watchdog of the treasury," Mr. Cannon, stood upon this bill.

Mr. Sims (Tenn.), who followed Mr. Mahon, tarred Mr. Cannon with lightning-hot claims of a few hundred dollars and then remaining glibly when such a bill as the sending one was before the house.

He declared that Mr. Cannon, if he could exert his influence, could defeat this measure. Mr. Sims declared that no exposition "will be profitable."

He appealed to the democratic congressmen not to vote on the pending measure.

Mr. Cannon said he had conducted himself impartially and such legislation. He agreed that exposition matters had run wild. But this bill was now upon a footing where it could not be discarded. He had opposed the paragraph in the sundry civil bill at the last session. It had been placed upon the bill by Senator Beckford, a democrat in the senate. He had opposed it with a voice and vote, but it had become a law. St. Louis had concluded with its part of the bill, and the government was obligated to comply also. He should, therefore, vote for the pending bill.

The voices were suspended and the bill passed by a vote of 101 to 41. The result was received with applause.

ST. LOUIS DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Charles Bent Became Suspicious of His Wife, Murdered Her and Committed Suicide.

St. Louis, Feb. 19.—Believing that his pretty young wife was untrue to him and being tired of the continual reasons, Charles E. Bent shot and mortally wounded her and then killed himself with a bullet from the same revolver at 8:15 Monday morning.

The double tragedy occurred in the rooming house conducted by Bent's aunt, Mrs. Helen Louise Williams. There were no witnesses to the shooting.

Met Comity With Original Demands.

Pekin, Feb. 19.—The foreign envoys have held a conference regarding the Chinese reply concerning the pending of the guilty persons named by the powers. The reply was considered unsatisfactory and the envoys decided to insist upon a compromise with their original demands.

The Grip Has It.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 19.—Col. M. M. Surcouff, postmaster and editor of the Wichita Eagle, is very ill at his home. He has been ill for several days with the grip, and complications have appeared.

MANITOWA APPLES.

The following list of apples were successfully fruited this year in the province of Manitoba: Blenheim Gravenstein, Gravenstein, Benckley No. 1, Hibernia, Repts. Melenka, Lieby, Orakoff and Roma of the Russian varieties and Wealthy, Peerless and Pat's Greening of American varieties. The Cheney and Wymant plums also bore good crops.

WHEN TO SPRAY.

The clash between the bees and the orchard men can be easily avoided if only a little common sense is used. It is definitely settled by the best authorities that so far as the orchard is concerned it is not best to spray when the trees are in full bloom, and this is just the time when spraying would kill the bees, which in the pursuit of food are just then doing their most helpful work in securing a perfect fertilization of the blossoms. Spraying before the buds open and again after the fruit is well set gives best results as regards the fruit and at the same time spares the bees.

HOW WE WOULD PLANT AN APPLE ORCHARD.

If the writer wanted to plant an apple orchard in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, northern Illinois or South Dakota, he would first select a good Virginia crab where the trees were to grow in the orchard. The next year he would cut the top of the crab off and graft with such varieties as he wished to grow, not hesitating at all to use partly those choice varieties which on their own roots would be better failures. On these crab trunks would graft Wealthy, Utter's Red, Longfield, Tallman's Sweet, Seek No Further, North-western Greening, Golden Russet and a score of others. The weak point in an apple tree in the territory referred to lies in the roots and in the trunk of the tree. This defect can be largely overcome by using the absolutely ironclad crab for roots and trunk. This is not a lengthy item, but if you will do it is worth good money to you if you want to grow apples in the northwest.

JUST LUCK.

Now, here is a queer case: A farmer whom we know, engaged in the stock business upon a very extensive scale, having a thousand head of cattle and never less than 500 hogs on his farm, has never lost a hog by cholera notwithstanding the disease in a malignant form has been rampant in his neighborhood several times.

It may be said that his turn will come some day, but inasmuch as he has escaped numerous times, it is not his luck. He certainly violates a reasonable law by keeping so large a number of hogs constantly on the same farm and would naturally be selected as the first man to lose by the ravages of this disease, but his hogs are always well. Such cases as this completely upset all the theories advanced as to the cause of this disease. It is not his luck, but his hogs are the product of his cornfields and scavengers of the steer yard. It is not preventable used, for his hogs are never doped. What is it, then? Just his breeding luck, that's all.

Things We Know About Heaven.

Heaven belongs to the unseen. It belongs to the spiritual, and therefore, cannot be fully known as long as we are in the material. It belongs to the perfectly holy, and, therefore, much of what might be known cannot be received or comprehended, for the natural man cannot know things of the Spirit of God, for they are spiritually discerned. No one returns to his experience or describes to us what he has seen. Angels' feet are always upon the ladder going from us to God and returning to minister to us, but no minister in alliance. We hear no voice as they serve. There are many questions we would like to ask, many questions we do not ask, many things we would like to see, but we are not written word nor by vision in the night is any answer given. Heaven lies beyond the domain of the present life, and we must wait until we come into the fullness of the Spirit, until we enter the higher sphere of being, before we can know or comprehend its realities and glories and blessings. Such knowledge is as yet too wonderful for us. It is high; we cannot attain it.—United Presbyterian.

Squibs From the Globe-Democrat.
The strong arm of the law can not wield a hatchet like an infuriated woman.

For President and Vice President on a George Washington platform: Gen. Weyler and Mrs. Nation.

Vice President Roosevelt is the very soul of fairness. He is already discounting those mountain lion stories.

Tired of being snubbed and snubbed, Mr. Astor threatens to secede from London to swear eternal allegiance to Paris.

Tue to their national characteristic, the officers of the French army in China want to parley with Count von Waldrese.

The man who is introducing Col. Bryan as "the next President of the United States" could better favor the public by introducing "the next Senator from Nebraska."

Hoke Smith declares that the South never believed in free silver, which is probably true, but for years it has been addicted to the bad habit of voting on that side.

A clever financier has discovered a way by which China can pay $600,000,000 indemnity. Probably he means to extract it from Li Hung Chang's private bank account.

King Edward VII. will prove himself to be the wisest ruler of his time if he shall succeed in devising a satisfactory plan by which his people can pay their war taxes.

How to Cure the Grip.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by St. Bernard drug store, Earlinton; Ben T. Robinson, Murton's Gap; Geo. King, St. Charles.

Coinage of 1900.

The coinage of 1900 was in excess of that in any previous year in the history of the Mint, aggregating $141,301,900, as compared with $138,856,676 in the last fiscal year. The value of the gold coinage was slightly below that of the previous year, $107,087,110, as compared with $108,177,180. The coinage of silver dollars was $18,244,084, as compared with $18,264,709 in the previous year. The total deposits of gold were not so great as in the previous year, the imports of bullion showing a decline, but the deposits of domestic bullion again surpassed all records.—Commercial and Financial World.

Rev. A. Radish Melton.

Hopkinsville, Ky., February 18.—Rev. Meredith Melton, for over sixty years a minister of the Methodist Church, died at Crofton last night of gripe, aged 85 years. He was a native of Alabama, but came to Kentucky in his youth. He had for years been drawing a pension, having served and been injured in the Indian wars out West over forty years ago.

Relieves and cures La Grippe.

Congressman Henry C. Smith, Michigan, has introduced a bill to provide for the appointment of a national commission, to be composed of six representative railroad men, to be selected by the railroads, and six business men, to be selected by the large patrons of the railroads, which commission is to have power to regulate all freight charges and issue all traffic for the government of railroad rates, says the Railway Review. The duties imposed upon this commission are such as to appal any one but a congressman. If the gentleman in question wants to obtain a little light on the subject he might examine the tariff files of the interstate commerce commission. The necessary force to compile and issue the publications of such a board would constitute one of the largest in the city of Washington, if, indeed, it would not be the largest anywhere in government employ.

With so much literature on the subject, it is astonishing that men of average intelligence will continue to introduce such absurd measures, and thereby consume legislative time that might otherwise be devoted to the consideration of more profitable, as well as much needed, measures.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

science makes cowards of men and an illustration of the truth of this saying was given last week when the agitator who is one of the big guns when he is with the gang in the presence of the bar-keeper, was enroute home from Madisonville, and while walking he saw the track he was accosted by a friend, a short distance in the rear, and having a horror for guards and thinking the voice was that of one, he started a trot, and the fellow behind, seeing his frightened condition, called upon him to halt; but the agitator was not ready to pose in his cheeks, and thinking his time had come if he should fall into the hands of the guard, quickened his pace and the faster he ran the more he was rushed by his follower, however, was none other than a miner. At last a creek was reached and even there the fellow scarcely slowed up, but jumped on a crossing log and at once fell headlong into the sulphur water. He was not up, although he was reached home, and a neighbor's in an almost fainting condition. When asked where he got the mud on his clothing he says he went on a con- hunt a few days ago and fell into a creek, but the truth is that a "coon" was running him.

THE MAYOR POW-ERLESS.

So Mayor Finley Boss of Wichita Declared to W. C. T. U. Women.

Wichita, Kas., Feb. 20.—At a meeting of the W. C. T. U., Tuesday evening, a large committee was chosen to wait upon Mayor Finley Boss. They called upon his honor and asked him what he intended to do about selling the saloons. He told them he was powerless.

They passed a resolution that the saloons must go, although before deciding on further action they concluded to await the result of a mass meeting called by the ministers for next Sunday.

In the meantime the call for the business men's meeting to check violence has been largely signed.

THINGS UP AT WINFIELD.

The City Marshal, However, Has a Power to Preserve Order.

Wichita, Kas., Feb. 20.—A special to the Beacon from Winfield, Kas., says: At noon was the time given jointly to remove their fixtures from the city. They refused to do so. The city marshal has issued 100 depositions under instructions to preserve order and prevent destruction of property at all hazards.

Rudens Swears Out Warrants.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 20.—A special to the Star from Leavenworth, Kas., says: John Hudson, the bartender whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid at Millwood, came to Leavenworth and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here charging them with murder in the first degree.

Closed as Public Saloonkeepers.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 20.—The house passed Senator Harrell's bill relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and it was sent to Gov. Stanley for his signature. The bill closes as a public saloon all places where liquor is sold illegally.

Big Oil Fire in Pennsylvania.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 20.—A large oil fire is reported raging at Strongtown near Blitsville, W. Va. One life was lost.

COULDN'T HOPEKA JAIL.

Mrs. Nation and Companions Still Occupy the Hospital Ward of the Topeka Jail.

MRS. NATION WAITING FOR MAGAZINES.

The Case Against the Prisoners, Being of a Criminal Nature, Will Have to be Tried by a Jury—A Change of Venue Has Been Applied For.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Carrie Nation and her two companions, Mrs. Christ and Miss Madeline Southard are still confined in the county jail. Mrs. Nation stoutly persists that she will not give a $50,000 bond to keep the peace, and will remain in jail. The other two women are undecided, but it is thought they will secure bonds in a day or two. They occupy the hospital ward at the jail, a large bare room 35 by 40 feet. The furnishings are not different from those of the other cells except that comfortable beds have been provided. There are also two tables for writing, and Mrs. Nation has improvised a cupboard. There has been a constant stream of visitors to the cell, and Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Nation sent down word that she was not to be disturbed.

Writing for Magazines.

Mrs. Nation receives a large number of letters and telegrams daily. She spends the greater part of her time in writing. She has received large orders for articles from two eastern magazines, and has been spending most of her time preparing them. She will receive $25 for one, and has already received a check for $50 for the other. The articles will be about 1,500 words in length.

The Case Against the Crusaders.

The cases against the Nation crusaders for malicious destruction of property at Murphy's place, Sunday morning, will be called in the district court. It is a criminal charge, and will be tried by a jury. The defendants are Mrs. Nation, Mrs. Christ, Miss Southard, C. K. McWhorter and Dr. Harding. They will probably be tried separately. Mrs. Nation will look after her own case.

Mrs. Nation Have Secured Counsel.

The other defendants have secured counsel. The cases were to have come up in the morning, but the attorneys for the defense asked for a continuance until 1:30 p. m. in order that an application for change of venue might be prepared. The change of venue will probably be refused.

THE NATION CASE AT WICHITA.

A Motion to Quash the Information Denied by Judge Dale.

Wichita, Kas., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Nation's attorney presented a motion in the district court to quash the information against his client on the ground that the building injured harbored a nuisance, and that his client had a right to abate it.

In denying the motion Judge D. M. Dale ruled that it makes no difference whether the property destroyed is used for a saloon, a bank or a grocery store.

Under this ruling the only point at issue is whether the accused broke the glass windows as alleged in the complaint.

The complaint in one case is made by the owner of the building, who was not the proprietor of the saloon.

PHILIPPINES COMMERCE.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The division of insular affairs of the war department has made public statements showing the commerce of the Philippines for the seven months ended July 31, 1900. The total value of merchandise, gold and silver, imported into the islands during the period named, was $13,709,554, an increase of 12,500, or over 40 per cent, compared with 1899.

The total exports from the Philippines to all countries combined, amounted in value to $13,000,000, as compared with $12,000,000 in 1899. The trade with the United States was: Imports from this country, $1,900,000; exports, $1,500,000. The latter figures as compared with the previous year indicate a gain of over 15 per cent in the imports, and a material decrease in the exports.

COL. PETER S. MICHIE DEAD.

He was Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy at West Point.

West Point, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Col. Peter S. Michie, professor of the department of Natural and Experimental Philosophy at the United States Military Academy, died after a short illness, of pneumonia. He was 70 years old and had been on duty here as professor since 1871. He graduated from the military academy in 1852 and stood second in his class. He entered the corps of engineers and served in the operations against Charleston in 1863 and 1864. He is survived by his widow and a daughter. One son, the late Lieut. Dennis N. Michie, was killed in the battle of San Juan hill and in less than a year afterwards his only remaining son died from pneumonia.

PROTESTS FROM DE WET'S MEN

Object to Indiscriminate Flogging—Decide to Fight Independently.

London, Feb. 18.—A correspondent of the Daily Mail, who is with the British column pursuing Gen. De Wet says: "Gen. De Wet has failed to reach his objective, having been headed off in the town of Strijdom and Hope-town, respectively 78 and 85 miles from the scene of Friday's fight."

Last night a meeting of burghers was held in Gen. De Wet's camp to protest against the indiscriminate flogging of men, and half the force threatened to surrender. Eventually the malcontents decided to fight independently."

For a Monument to Senator Davis

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 15.—Senator Horton introduced a bill in the legislature appropriating $10,000 for a statue of the late United States Senator Cushman Kellogg Davis to be placed in Statuary hall in the national capital at Washington.

Medals for Officers and Men.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The senate committee on naval affairs yesterday reported favorably the senate joint resolution giving bronze medals to the officers and men of the North Atlantic squadron participating in the battle of Santiago bay.

SALT RHEUM CURED BY Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES. JUST KEEN IN TIME.

These skin eruptions are a warning of something more serious to come. The only safe way is to heed the warning. Johnston's Sarsaparilla is the most powerful blood purifier known.

Nature, in her efforts to correct mistakes, makes mistakes have some serious living, or it may be from sunstroke, shoots out pimples, blotches and other imperfections on the skin, as a warning that more serious troubles (such as tumors, cancers, erysipelas or pulmonary diseases) are certain to follow if you neglect to heed the warning and correct the mistakes.

Many a lingering, painful disease and many an early death has been avoided simply because these notes of warning have been heeded and the blood kept pure by a right use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

"I was cured of a bad humor after suffering with it for five years. The doctors and my friends said it was self-poisoning. It came out on my head, neck and ears, and then on my whole body. I was perfectly raw with it. What I did, I tried every medicine that was advertised to cure it. I spent money enough to buy a house. I heard JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA highly praised. I tried a bottle of it. I began to improve right away, and when I had finished the third bottle I was completely cured. I have never had a touch of it since. I never got any thing to do me the least good till I tried JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. I would heartily advise all who are suffering from humors or skin diseases of any kind to try it at once. I had a good deal of stomach trouble, and was run down and miserable, but JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA made me all right."

The blood is your life and if you keep it pure and strong you can positively resist disease or face contagion fearlessly. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA never allows disease to get a foothold. It is for sale by all druggists, in full quart bottles at only one dollar each.
